Opportunity is not what may come---it is What May Go!

As the Editor of The Silent Partner further says; "If you don't grab it before it goes, it is NOT AN OPPORTUNITY."

This store right at this moment--is full of what will be wonderful Opportunities, for folks who GET THEM BEFORE THEY GO.

Prices of some things are moderating; other prices are still threatening to go higher. We hope they won't; but the only way to be sure of not paying higher prices is to secure everything possible now, while the BIG OPPORTUNITY IS HERE.

This store is full of BARGAIN OPPORTUNITIES. But, of course, somebody else may get them first, if you're not prompt.
